POT SPOMINOV IN TOVARIŠTVA / PATH OF REMEMBRANCE AND COMRADESHIP

Pat spominov in tovarštva (PST) je prva država rekonstruirana zgodovinska pot. Dolga okoli 23 km in širka 4 m. In vsi običajni mesta Ljubljane. Prvenstvo ima poseben zgodovinski pomen - poimenovanje druge svetovne vojne ter okupacije Ljubljane. Pot je bila oblikovana leta 1985, in je sestavljena iz zgodovinskih informacij, tabele in zemljepisnih podatkov, ki so jih pripravili voditelji poti, kar tudi kognitivni napisi na klobučih. Pot se razprostira skozi Ljubljano, in je sestavljena iz zgodovinskih informacij, tabele in zemljepisnih podatkov, ki so jih pripravili voditelji poti, kar tudi kognitivni napisi na klobučih.

The Path of Remembrance and Comradeship (PST) is a grand-scale recreational and memorial walkway almost 23 km (14 mi) long and 4 m (13 ft) wide around the city of Ljubljana, named after its historical significance and connection to World War II occupation of Ljubljana.

The walkway was completed in 1985 and is marked by signs, information boards with the map of the path, plaques, and metal markers as well as signs at the turn-offs, as it leads past Kosov Polje and across Gornjica Hill.

The path is used by many residents of Ljubljana daily and frequently visited by visitors seeking beauty, leisure walking and jogging, cycling is also permitted, on condition that pedestrians are not endangered. During snowy winters consistency of the track is guaranteed at some of its sections. Each year since 1967, on the weekend closest to 9 May, the traditional memorial march along the Path around Ljubljana (Pobližje) is held. Ljubljana takes place to mark the Liberation of Ljubljana on 9 May 1945. Those who walk the entire distance and collect stamps at all eight checkpoints receive a memorial badge and a medal.
